Terms of Use Agreement

Teku's products and services are provided by Saagara PLLC, a Texas corporation, doing business as Teku ("Teku," "we," "our" or "us"). These Terms of Service ("Terms") are a legally binding contract and govern your access to and use of Teku's software application and other digital products, content, workshops, coaching, merchandise sales and any other services provided by Teku (collectively, "Services"). It is important that you carefully read and understand these Terms. By using the Services, you agree to be bound by these Terms. If you do not agree to these Terms, you should not use the Services.

These terms provide important information, including our limitation of liability, your waiver of any right to participate in a class action, and your agreement to resolve any disputes between you and Teku by binding individual arbitration. By using the Services, you agree to be bound by these Terms.

IN THE EVENT OF A MEDICAL EMERGENCY, CALL 911. THE SERVICES DO NOT CONTAIN MEDICAL ADVICE.

Use of Our Services

Teku provides a platform that enables users of Teku's Services to connect with individuals (ie mental health providers, educators, wellness instructors, and other community leaders) who may provide a coaching consultation or to join an educational class, workshop or community-building activities.

Although this Site and our Services may provide information related to mental health, psychiatry, clinical psychology and other medical issues, such information is not intended to constitute or be a substitute for advice from a qualified healthcare provider. Your use of the Site does not create any therapist-patient or other treatment relationship between you and Teku or any of its representatives (including, but not limited, Teku's founder, Dr. Barbara Robles-Ramamurthy). Teku is not engaged in the practice of medicine or mental health care, does not provide medical services, therapy or mental health treatment, and is not a healthcare provider. Our services help foster mental health as preventive and supportive services but do not treat mental illness, do not provide services in a clinically or professional manner; therefore, any of the services provided by Teku do not constitute medical or clinical care. Relationships between users and Teku do not constitute patient-physician/therapist relationships. This distinction is important to allow Teku to engage in dissemination of information, easy access to supportive services and innovation. IF YOU ARE SEEKING CLINICAL OR MEDICAL CARE, PLEASE SEE YOUR MEDICAL/HEALTHCARE PROVIDER.

Teku assumes no responsibility for any consequence relating directly or indirectly to any action or inaction you take based on the Available Content or other information or material on this Site. Reliance on any information provided by Teku, Teku representatives or others contributing to the Site at the invitation of Teku, or subscribers to the Site, is solely at your own risk. Always seek the advice of your qualified healthcare professionals with any questions you may have regarding a medical condition. Never disregard professional advice or delay in seeking it because of something you have read on this Site.

Teku does not provide any medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment suggestions. This is the responsibility of your Clinician. Any health information services, suggestions, or other content on the Services are for informational purposes only. You assume full responsibility for the use of any information obtained through the Services and agree that we're not responsible or liable for any claim, loss, or damage arising from using that information. If you rely on any information provided by us or on the Services, you do so at your own risk. Teku does not guarantee response times for any communications between you and Teku team members using the Services. The Services are not designed or intended for use in emergency situations. Emergency and urgent questions and situations should be directed immediately by telephone or in-person to qualified professionals (e.g., in the United States, call 988,911 and/or visit an urgent care center). Teku is designed to provide resources, education, non-clinical support through coaching, community building and organizing and to advance advocacy opportunities to protect family mental health.

The arbitrator will be either a retired judge or an attorney licensed to practice law in the state of California and will be selected by the parties from the AAA's roster of consumer dispute arbitrators. If the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator within 7 days of delivery of the Demand for Arbitration, then the AAA will appoint the arbitrator in accordance with AAA Rules.

Arbitration Location and Procedure. Unless you and Teku agree otherwise, the arbitration will be conducted in San Francisco. If your claim does not exceed $10,000, then the arbitration will be conducted solely on the basis of documents you and Teku submit to the arbitrator, unless you request a hearing and the arbitrator then determines that a hearing is necessary. If your claim exceeds $10,000, your right to a hearing will be determined by AAA Rules. Subject to AAA Rules, the arbitrator will have the discretion to direct a reasonable exchange of information by the parties, consistent with the expedited nature of the arbitration.
